Resume for Chris L. Thompson

Experience

- 2011 to present - As a speaker, trainer and coach with the John Maxwell Team, I have had the opportunity to teach and train others on the 21 Irrefutable Laws of Leadership and to see the those laws have a significant impact in the life of many individuals. I have had the opportunity to speak to business associations, non-profit organizations, churches and other groups and gatherings. I have had numerous opportunities to coach others and speak words of wisdom, knowledge and encouragement into the lives of men, women, and young people. I have participated in group training events and worked in unity with other speakers and trainers to present the laws of leadership. As an evangelist and minister of the Gospel I have incorporated the 21 laws into many of my messages.
- 1998 to present - As a Senior Packaging Equipment Engineer at Eisai Inc. in the pharmaceutical industry, I have had many opportunities to make presentations to the upper management of my company concerning million dollar projects. I have had the responsibility of leading teams, training individuals and managing high visibility projects. I have managed junior engineers and technicians and helped them to develop the skills required for promotion and advancement within the organization. I have utilized various communication tools to train, motivate and encourage direct reports as well as inter-departmental team members. I have been an individual contributor and a supportive team member and I promote the values of integrity respect, professionalism, and teamwork.
- 1992 to present - As the founder and President of Power Source Ministries Inc, I have had the opportunity to minister across the US and to travel to such countries as India, Liberia, Kenya and Romania to conduct crusades and church leadership conferences. I have spoken in 12 different prisons around the world to promote the message of a second chance through the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I have worked with troubled teens, church youth groups, young professionals and men's ministries to empower them with the hope and calling of God on their lives.
- 1990 to 1992 - As the Minister of Outreach and Evangelism at Living Waters Christian Community, I taught bible studies at several local schools, ministered in local youth homes and prisons, organized local community events and started a bus outreach ministry that reached many inter-city children and adults.
