Resume for Daniel W. Evans

Experience

- 2011 to present - As an experienced speaker I have taught the John Maxwell Team curriculum on several occasions since joining the training in August of 2011. I had a speaking engagement using Put Your Dream to the Test to church and business leadership. I have coached several people individually and were able to share several of the 21 laws with them. A fellow JMT member and myself spoke an entire day with four sessions to a non-profit organizations' leadership. As a minister of the Gospel I have incorporated the 21 laws into my messages. This is just some of the examples of how my experience can fit the one-on-one platform of coaching or the team effort of presenting training to others in the speaking and workshop environments. The opportunities are increasing.
- 2010 to present - As an owner and director for CERTEK, we have trained managers and developed marketing strategies for this international company that manufactures modular biocontainment laboratories. Our clients range from many agencies of the US government on the state and federal levels to governments of other countries. We have to communicate with people from other countries and are aware of cultural and religious differences.
- 2010 to present - As a Manager/Owner of Synergies, LLC we assist people in taking their creative ideas of consumer products, services and software development from concept to design and then to prototype ready for marketing and manufacturing.
- 2007 to present - Daniel Evans Books is the entity that handles the business end of my books that I have authored. I have spoken at many churches about my books and then have a book signing to meet people personally. I have also had book signings at book stores and have done several interviews about certain books.
- 2002 to present - As the founder and President of Divine Touch I travel to other countries to conduct crusades and church leadership conferences and to assist in the coordination and team development to disciple new converts. I produced daily radio programs that aired in eleven states in the US from 2002 through 2004.
- 1997 to present - As an Associate Pastor at Living Waters Christian Community I have engaged in speaking, teaching, leadership training, organized structure for all outreach ministries, and life and business coaching on many occasions.

1982 to present - As the founder of Daniel Evans Ministries I have travelled throughout the United States as an evangelist and teacher. From 1982 through 1987 I produced weekly radio programs that aired on three stations in NC. Also, I hosted a live TV Christian program for a local TV station that aired in NC and VA and hosted my own weekly TV Christian teaching program at the same station during this same time period.

1979 to present - As the founder, owner and director of DW Evans Electric, Inc I have trained many company managers and developed systems and protocols for team development of a growing company, which has been a multimillion dollar business for years. We have maintained long relationships with many clients and have negotiated contracts for governments on the local, state and federal levels.
