Resume for Frank L. Blalock

Experience

- 2012 to present- I am the owner and broker in charge of Strategy One LLC a real estate company specializing in land in Raleigh Durham area of North Carolina.
- 2010 to present - As a Manager/Owner of Synergies LLC I have a wonderful opportunity of connecting with some very creative minds who have a concept of a new idea but need help in taking that product from technical drawings, to prototype and then on to marketing and manufacturing.
- 2009 to present - I serve as a Board Member of Living Waters Ministry Foundation in Cary, NC. I have the opportunity to work with a group of business leaders who are making a real and tangible difference in Kenya including establishing multiple Bible Schools that train not only pastors but young entrepreneurs and business leaders to treat their business as ministry. Men of Significance (MOS) of which I serve in connection with Living Water Ministry Foundation meet twice a month where we mentor business leaders to do just what we're doing in Africa.
- 2007 to present - I have had the extraordinary privilege of serving on the Board of Directors of AiLing Hua Foundation as Treasurer. The foundation is the primary fund raising arm of AiLing Hua Children's Home in Shenzhen, China. We're able to save orphaned and abandoned children and give them a family environment that is loving and conducive to their success in life. As a Board Member I serve in an advisory and consultant capacity from everything dealing with budget, childcare, to the training of staff and education of the children in AiLing Hua Children's Home.
- 2000 to 2012 - The company began as manufactured homes sales and in 2006 I joined Howard Perry & Walston as a Broker and in 2009 opened my own agency Lion Heart Development LLC. I represented buyers and sellers primarily in the Commercial end of real estate. Being a professional in real estate I'm required to represent my clients superbly which includes helping them grasp the complexities of the industry in a very easy way to understand. It's all about communication.
- 1988 to 1997 - I hosted Fishers of Men television program in Raleigh NC interviewing such excellent leaders as Bishop TD Jakes, Ben Kinchlow, Dr. Mark Chironna, and Dave Roever along with Donna Douglas and Meadow Lark Lemmon just to mention a few.

Coast to Coast Coaching

1976 to present - As Founder and President of Christ Connection Ministries International (CCMI) I have had the wonderful if not unique privilege to travel and teach internationally for the better part of my life. I have had the opportunity to teach and train leaders of the churches in China with Government permission. I've been invited to conduct conferences in Lagos, Nigeria and have done ministry in the schools of El Salvador.

1965 to present - At 11 years old I began a life time passion of preaching and public speaking in which I continue to this day. I enjoy interacting with people in the public forum. In 1972 I was ordained with the IPHC Church after 3 years of at home study during High School. I conducted many revivals as a young boy before even being licensed.
